GUS OLSEN NOT SENTENCED BY JUDGE

Following an inspection of the premises by Judge W. H. Reeder, Gus Olsen, charged with permitting offensive garbage to be dumped on his land, was given a suspended sentence in police court this morning. The judge found Olsen guilty of the charge, but declared that, since the defendant had put the ground in good condition and the neighbors and sanitary inspector are satisfied, he would not impose a fine.

Olsen declared that he would see that no more garbage is thrown upon his ground in the future.

John Karney, the man charged with vagrancy after being arrested for trying to dispose of phony jewelry, was given a sentence of 15 days or $15 by Judge Reeder.

MAY FESTIVAL AT STATE SCHOOL

Preparations in anticipation of the fourth annual May festival of the State School for the Deaf and Blind have been going on for some time and the program for the festival, which occurs on May 22, will be completed on Monday.

Superintendent F. M. Briggs has issued an invitation to every resident of Ogden and the state to attend the exercises, which will be held between the hours of 5:30 and 7:30 p. m. The beautiful lawn in front of the buildings will be the scene of the festival as in the past and the program will consist of drills, including folk dances, marches and calisthenics. There will be music by the blind orchestra.

At the May festival held last year the attendance was more than 2000 and the superintendent is prepared to handle more people this year as many are expected to attend from Salt Lake and other cities.

For Sallow, Wrinkled, Freckled, Pimpled Skin

(From Woman's Home Journal.) If you have any cutaneous blemish, don't use paint, powder or anything else to cover it. Too often this only emphasizes the defect. Besides, it's much easier to remove the disfigurement with ordinary mercurized wax. Applied nightly, the wax will gradually remove freckles, pimples, blackheads, blotches, sallowness, red or yellow blotches, or any surface eruptions. The affected cuticle is absorbed, a little each day, until the clear, soft, youthful and beautiful skin beneath is brought wholly to view. Ask the druggist for an ounce of mercurized wax and use this like you use cold cream. Remove in morning with soap and water. Many who have tried this simple and harmless treatment report astonishing results.

If bothered with wrinkles or crow's feet, a wash lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered exaltol in a half pint witch hazel will prove remarkably effective.

In the course of a week, the extension of the Twenty-third street line from Adams to Washington avenues will be completed, when a straight run can be made from Washington avenue to the hospital. The grade work is nearly completed, but steel for the intersection at Twenty-third and Washington will not arrive until Tuesday of next week.

NEW BUILDINGS IN COURSE OF ERECTION

Some impatience is expressed by business men and others because of the delay in getting the corner straightened out, as the season is advancing and all are eager to see building get brisk. It is said that if work on the skyscraper should begin, there would be more encouragement for other builders to put their plans into operation.

Thirteen carloads of steel have been assembled in the city for the building, but the contractors cannot begin operations until the word to build comes from the Eccles interests and the Eccles people cannot consistently give the word until the legal status of the south wall is settled by the courts. The question has been before the supreme court a number of weeks without action on the part of that tribunal so far as rendering a decision is concerned.

However, other building enterprises are on and Ogden today is a busy city.

Twenty-five men are at work today on the Kiesel five-story block on Hudson and Twenty-fourth, and the force will be enlarged. The basement walls have been completed and concrete workers are now putting in the cement floor for that part of the structure. Foreman Niles says that he expects to put brick masons to work in two weeks.

Across the avenue from this building, the O'Neill Construction company has a force of men and teams at work excavating for the Peery block.

Building on the H. L. White block and the Old Fellows home on Washington avenue is progressing, the basement walls having been finished and the stringers for the first floor placed. Within the next few days stringers for the second floor will be laid.

Under the direction of Walter Parry, vice president and manager of the Parry Investment company, the reconstruction of the large business block on Twenty-third street and Washington avenue, which was burned down a short time ago. The architects have not yet perfected the plans for the new building but it is said by Manager Parry that they will be ready in the course of a few days. As soon as the plans are ready bids for construction will be asked for.

Mr. Parry states that a part of the old walls will be used in the new building but that the place will be made modern in every respect. It will be a two-story structure with a front on Washington avenue of 80 feet and 113 feet on Twenty-third street with a basement covering the entire space.

Progress is being made on the new home for the Knights of Pythias on Grant avenue, near the corner of Twenty-fourth street.

The Healy hotel at Wall avenue and Twenty-fifth street, which is being remodeled, will be in use before another month.

The remodeling of the Howell block on Washington avenue, near Twenty-fifth street, will add greatly to the appearance of the business district in which it is situated.

The Ogden Steam laundry annex, is nearing completion.

PROBATE DAY IN THE DISTRICT COURT

In Judge Howell's division of the district court this morning, in the matter of the estate of Eliza Jane Hambleton, deceased, the petition for confirmation of the sale of real estate was continued until May 19. It was represented that there is a possibility of securing a higher bid on the property to be sold and the court stated that it was desirous of getting the greatest possible price for the property.

In the estate of Alexander Gilchrist, deceased, the petition for letters of administration was granted and the widow was appointed administratrix under bond of $2,500.

HEAD OF BOND HOUSE IS IN OGDEN

E. H. Rollins of the firm of E. H. Rollins and Sons of New York, stopped off in Ogden yesterday on his way from San Francisco and at the solicitation of William Scott, the company's representative of the western section, took a trip over the Ogden Rapid Transit road to Brigham City and from there by automobile to Logan and return.

Mr. Rollins is not interested in any railroad projects in this section, but inasmuch as his company is a heavy dealer in bonds, he was prevailed upon to look over the country north of Ogden to acquaint himself with general conditions.

The financier was accompanied by Superintendent P. D. Kline of the Ogden Rapid Transit company, and the automobile trip from Brigham City to Logan and back was made through Brigham canyon one way and the Bear River section the other.

Mr. Rollins was advised by President M. S. Browning, that the Ogden Rapid Transit company will not need on to look over the country north of Ogden to acquaint himself with general conditions. He was told, however, that there is a possibility of much electric road extensions north for which it may be necessary for the companies that may do the building to bond, and that, if he became familiar with the commercial conditions of northern Utah, his knowledge of the country might serve to good purpose.

Washing at Home Is Unhealthy

The method of many housewives are far behind the times.

They travel in a circle, doing today as they did yesterday, with hardly a single improvement in a course of ten years.

Takes the family washing as an instance.

Legions of housewives still do it at home. Thus polluting the house with unhealthy steam and odors.

It's folly to continue home washing when you can have this laundry do it for you at small expense.

Just call us on the 'phone and we will give you complete information as to rates, etc.
